POLICE JUDGES' SALARIES

An Increase of $1,000 a Year Asked from Congress.

The Statement of the Judicial Officials Giving Their Reasons for Requesting Greater Remuneration The Pay in the District Compared With That in Other Large Cities.

The Commissioners of the District of Columbia have asked Congress to increase the appropriation for the salaries of the Judges of the Police Court for the next fiscal year to $4,000 per annum each. Judge 1. G. Kimball and Judge Charles F. Scott, of the Police Court, in a com munication upon the subject of higher sal aries, say: "No other court in the District of Colum citizens and is so necessary for the prope and orderly government of the District a either as trial or committing magistrates hear every case arising under the criminal laws of the United States, except murde and violations of the pastal and pension laws, in addition to which they try all municipal laws and all laws relating to building, plumbing, health, pure food, and multitude of other subjects.

"The questions of law presented to them for decision are as difficult and require as great legal knowledge as those arising in my other of the courts of the District, and hich, as they get $10 per day, allows a ubstitute for thirty days, including Sun-uys, in each year. The judges of each the other courts in the District receive vacation of about three months in each

The report of the business done by the olice Court for the year 1899 shows that ,893 cases were heard. The statement ontinues:

"If we average the number of witnesses is six for each case, or three for each ide, which is a small average, it would take 107,358 witnesses sworn, and their vidence carefully heard and considered by the judges judgement arrived at, and not judgement taken. In addition is obe taken into consideration the thousards of legal arguments heard every ear, and the hearings on motions for new rials, besides the constant visits made to the judges at their homes at all hours the night to fix bonds for prisoners."

The statement, in conclusion, says:

pended is a statement of the salaries pridiculdes of police courts in other cities:
New York eity, $6,000 each; borough of gueens, $5,000 each; borough of Rthnond, $5,000 each; Boston, chief justice, $4,300, and live associate justices, $4,300 each; Cincinnai, $4,000 each; Cincinnai, $4,000 each; Cincinnai, $4,000 each; San Francisco, judges appointed since January 1, 1930, $3,600 each; Rocherer, $3,300 each. Philadelphia, Caicago, and Pittsburg do not have police judges but instead have a large number of police magistrates."
